

INDIANA DECA CODE OF CONDUCT

The following is an explanation of the Indiana DECA Code of Conduct. Discipline shall focus on prevention and the establishment of a climate in which individuals are encouraged to be good citizens in school, work, the community and at DECA conferences and events. Each individual should be treated as a person who can reasonably be expected to be responsible for his or her own behavior. The Code of Conduct will be consistently applied at all DECA conferences and events. Students who do not accept this responsibility and who violate Indiana DECA rules will be required to accept the appropriate consequences. Indiana DECA advisors are to uphold their duties and responsibilities as well and may be subject to disciplinary action for any misconduct and/or dereliction of duties.

The Board of Directors recognizes the need to make its expectations for individual conduct while engaged in any DECA function specific and clear. The rules of conduct listed below are intended to do that and focus on safety and respect for the rights and property of others.

A student may be searched or tested when there is reasonable suspicion that the student is engaging in any proscribed activity which is in violation of this Code. Indiana DECA reserves the right to conduct any other search which is consistent with law, including, but not limited to, random searches, and to search at any time and without consent. An authorized representative of Indiana DECA shall have the right to enter the hotel room of a delegate without permission during a sanctioned Indiana DECA, DECA, and/or International DECA conference or event requiring an overnight stay for the express purpose of safeguarding the well-being of a delegate where there is reasonable suspicion that the safety and/or well-being of a delegate is being threatened and/or is danger. Where warranted, local law enforcement will be contacted. By signing below, you are hereby acknowledging and consenting to an authorized Indiana DECA official taking the above action.

For the purpose of this Code of Conduct:

A) The term "delegate" shall mean any Indiana DECA member, including advisors and adult chaperones, attending any conference, event and/or function of Indiana DECA, DECA and/or International DECA.

B) Individual chapters or delegates violating or ignoring any of the following rules will be dealt with in accordance with the procedures adopted hereunder and the penalties prescribed. Such penalties will be consistent and appropriate to the violation and points assigned to each violation.

C) Students found to have violated the Indiana DECA Code of Conduct may be subject to the following penalties. Indiana DECA's Board of Directors, and/or a duly delegated body authorized to act on its behalf, are authorized to impose that penalty. The range of penalties includes:

- (1) Verbal warning and/or reprimand;
- (2) Parent and/or home school advisor notification and/or disciplinary referral to home school;
- (3) Restrictive Movement*;
- (4) Sent home from a DECA event or function at the student's expense;
- (5) Removal of the delegate's title and/or position within Indiana DECA;
- (6) Suspension from Indiana DECA; and/or
- (7) Expulsion.

*Restrictive Movement- the delegate will constantly be accompanied by his/her advisor or designated adult chaperone at ALL times, except after curfew when the delegate shall be in his/her room. Chapter advisors will be held accountable for student delegate conduct.

D) In determining the disciplinary action imposed against a student(s), each situation will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Factors, including, but not limited to, the following will be considered: (1) the student's age; (2) the nature of the infraction and the circumstances which led to the infraction; (3) the effectiveness of other forms of discipline; (4) information gleaned from individuals present at the infraction; and (5) any extenuating circumstances.

E) All delegates must follow all rules stated by Indiana DECA, DECA and/or International DECA and further those set forth by hosting organization or facility hosting the event.

F) The Conduct Committee, with authority delegated to it by the Board of Directors, reserves the right to interpretation and application of the Code of Conduct as necessary. The decision of the Conduct Committee shall be final, except some matters may be appealed to the Board of Directors.

G) Delegates shall respect and abide by the authority delegated by the Indiana DECA Board of Directors, the Executive Council, the Conduct Committee, presiding officer, committee chairpersons, and any advisor or authorized representative of Indiana DECA.

H) The following penalty system will be used to deal with violators and the penalty points that apply: The ranges of penalties and the penalty points with corresponding infractions as listed herein are for guidance only. Indiana DECA reserves the right to impose any penalty as warranted under the specific circumstances.

POINTS PENALTY

1 & 2 - Reprimand/Warning; Parent, Home School, Advisor Notification;

3 - Restrictive Movement

4 & 5 - Sending the student home from DECA event or function at the student's expense; suspension; removal of title or position within Indiana DECA; and/or expulsion.

NOTE: Schools and Chapters rules and consequences will apply above and beyond what is herein stated.

APPEAL PROCESS A person or chapter expelled or suspended from Indiana DECA may appeal the decision of the Code of Conduct Committee to the Board of Directors by filing a written notice of appeal with the Secretary of the Board of Directors. The notice of appeal must be in writing and received within seven (7) days after the individual and/or the student's home chapter has received notice of the Code of Conduct Committee's decision. The student delegate and his/her parent or guardian and the home school expressly agree to pay the costs involved for Board members to attend the appeal. This includes, but is not limited to, airfare and travel expenses to and from the appeal, room and board and for the Board of Directors' reasonable counsel fees. In the event the student delegate's appeal is successful; i.e., results in a lessening of a previously imposed punishment administered by the Code of Conduct Committee, such fees and costs incurred by Board members hearing the appeal will be borne by Indiana DECA. Under no circumstance, shall Indiana DECA pay or reimburse the student delegate, his/her parent/or guardian, home school advisor, or other guardian or advisor, chapter, and/or school/school district in connection with an appeal regardless of the outcome.
